We want a face of a jackal. We like the color of the graphic, black and aged mustard yellow

We want the head faced up like this

We want different designs in the head part.

The hair part look good. We want stick figures of people arguing. And possibly the 7 words on the back cover. We want this design to be abstract so people will have to look at it to figure out that the names and the people are in there . So other designs need to be included.
