Our Promotional Package:

For our selected companies, consider letting us further promote your products and company! Our promotional package provides consumers and retailers with in-depth education and information about your company and products. Our package includes the following:

1. Profile on HealthBlooms.com

When visitors view our Product Pick List, they can learn more about your company by clicking your profile. Your profile is a full-page of information about your company & products. This page is yours to create and may include: An active link to your web site; photos of your products; photos of your team; contact information; in-depth description of your products; company mission and values; special offers; and more. Your Profile will be active on HealthBlooms.com for a 6-month duration.

2. Product Review:

An in-depth product review in our monthly newsletter by a member of our Product Review Team. We will e-mail this newsletter to our mailing list and tell them why we love your products and why we picked your company. Our e-mailing list includes 100,000 targeted retailers and consumers. The newsletter will be mailed out monthly; re-directing people back to HealthBlooms.com for further articles and information.

3. Home Page Spot:

A photo of your products and your logo profiled on our Home Page of HealthBlooms.com for a one-week duration.

Regularly Priced at: $699
Expo West Special: $499

We look forward to educating and informing retailers and consumers about your outstanding products! For more information please check out our web site at www.HealthBlooms.com or call us at (800) 339-2308.
